

Global-e Selected by Victoria's Secret to Enhance International E-commerce Offering

December 17, 2024

Global-e will support Victoria's Secret's key international markets and enable localized international D2C solutions to over 100 markets

NEW YORK, Dec. 17, 2024 /PRNewswire/ -- Global-e (Nasdaq: GLBE), the platform powering global direct-to-consumer e-commerce, announced today that they have been selected by Victoria's Secret & Co., a world-leading intimates retailer, to advance their international online operations.

With the support of Global-e, Victoria's Secret is now poised to bolster its e-commerce strategy in key international markets, namely, Canada and leading European markets such as Germany and France, with better insights, customer experience, logistics and flexibility.

In addition, partnering with Global-e has enabled Victoria's Secret to launch an end-to-end localized shopping experience in over 100 markets across the globe. This includes pricing and payment in the local currency, a variety of local and alternative payment options, guaranteed final cost of purchase, and an enhanced delivery proposition.

"We are thrilled to be chosen by Victoria's Secret and be part of their exciting new phase of international growth," said Matthew Merrilees, CEO North America for Global-e. "Our team expertly managed the migration project for Victoria's Secret, allowing the company to efficiently launch its enhanced international e-commerce setup and immediately benefit from new operational improvements. We look forward to working closely with Victoria's Secret and supporting their global D2C strategy, utilizing our experience and data-backed knowledge working with hundreds of leading global enterprise clients."

"We're excited to partner with Global-e to enhance our international e-commerce capabilities across both our key markets and new regions. We chose Global-e because of their leading technology platform, robust client management support, and deep insights drawn from the broadest client base in the industry," said Baptiste Marchis, VP of Digital International, Victoria's Secret.

Global-e's end-to-end global e-commerce platform provides brands with a robust solution designed to drive D2C e-commerce growth across multiple markets globally. Through its advanced localization capabilities, extensive global operations, and data-driven business intelligence models, Global-e simplifies global online selling and enables brands to offer digital consumers worldwide an optimal shopping experience, tailored to local market preferences. Global-e's platform supports localized welcome and checkout in over 30 languages, pricing in over 100 currencies, over 150 local and alternative payment methods, tax and duty calculation and pre-payment, multiple shipping options and easy returns.
